22 The publication of this issue commenced

HONGKONG, PRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 19, 1890 THE Chamber of Commerce nominated

yesterday Mr T. H. Whitehead as its representative in the Legislative Council. As we have said before, there was not much to choose between the two candidates, and had we been called to decide between them, we should have been inclined to do so by throwing up a ten-cent piece. Mr Whitehead is a shrewd-business man, and as the elect of a coterie, he will doubtless make as good a member as some of his predecessors at the Council table. That he understands the role he is called upon to play was evident from his conduct at the election meeting. If he has any opinions on public sifairs, he carefully concealed them; and, in the words of thanks he spoke, he was so modest as to attribute the honour to the Bank he represents and not to himself, What a strange commentary on the Chairman's sent in to Meters Russell & Co., on or speech ! Bit Mackintosh inveighed against the government of the Colony by men ten thousand miles away who know next to nothing about our local affairs ! and then the Chamber elects as its repres left Singapore for this port to-day.

has the Chartered Bank, whose main object is to make as much out of the Colony as possible for its shareholders in England, got to do with our drainage systems, our Praya reclamations, our merchant shipping ordinances, our emigration ordinances, or our gambling laws ? It must, we are sure, have been patent to everybody present at ... the meeting that the Chairman was occupying a very false position. Instead of being the magician who, contrary to his own principles, wafted into Council a London Bank, he ought to have come forward himself to maintain the progressive views be ennounced. Apart from some pertinent remarks by Mr Keswick, the Chairman's speech was the only one which had any political character. The rest of the speeches would have been equally pertinent had the question been the. election of a director of some local company. Mr Mackintosh's plea for Home Rule we heartily endorse, although we are inclined to differ from him as to some of the means of attaining the object in view. It seems us a matter of moonahine whether officials vote according to their conscience or according as they are instructed. By the position they occupy they are dependent on the Governor, and whatever influence they may exercise in shaping his policy, it is certainly not their function to spenly oppose that policy once it has been declared. One might as well ask Cabinet Ministers to oppose Government measures. Of the offi-$1.00 dial members there was formerly one member who occupied an independent position -the Chief Justice. The Secretary of State in his wisdom has decreed that the 1.25 head of the Bench shall not have a seat on the Council. The officials that remain 1.50 either form part of the Government or are directly subject to it. What is wanted is 0.60 not a strengthening of the official position in Council, but of the unofficial. We want in the Council men with ideas, elected on account of their principles by the whole of the educated taxpayers of the Colony Hongkong has a twofold nature. It is first of all a British Colony and part of the great British Empire. As such it is helplessly dependent on the mother country and must be governed from Downing Street. But it is also-and its second nature is as important as the first-a commercial city. 1 doz. 2 doz. As such it ought, to a large extent, to be self-governing. Entire solf-government is not possible, even in local affairs, because a lerge section of the community are totally ignorant of the first elements of civilised 12.00 government. Their interests the Gov. ernor and the Secretary of State for the Colonies must continue to watch over. With this necessary check, there is no reason why we should not have home rule for local affairs in Hongkong. Whether this object would be best carried out by the establishment of a semi-independent Municipal Council or by the popularising of the Vintage, Red Capaule . 24 2.00 Legislative Council is not a very easy matter to decide. We are a somewhat 8 0.75 small place for two governing bodies, and there is always therisk of the spheres encreaching on cach other and of progress being impeded by friction. But whatever the decision in this respect may be, we hope the era of narrow franchise and cliquism is at end. The ridiculous fiasco of yesterday ought to harten ita doom.

THE CHINA REVIEW. PUBLISHED BI-MONTHLY.

THIS Review, which was intended to meet the wants of many students of Chinese caused by the discontinuance of ' Notes and Queries on China and Japan, has reached its Eighteenth Volume. The Review discusses those topics which are uppermost in the minds of students of the 'Far East' and about which every intelligent person connected with China or Japan is desirous of acquiring trustworthy information. It includes many interesting Notes and original Papers on the Arts, Sciences, Ethnology, Folklore, Geography, History, Literature, Mythology, Natural History, Antiquities, and Social Manners and Customs, etc., etc., Section. of China, Japan, Mongolia, Tibut, and the Far East generally. Recently a new departure has been taken, and the Review now gives papers on Trade, Commerce, and Descriptive notes of Travel by well-known writers. It was thought that by extending the scope of the Review in this direction, the Magazine would be mademore generally

The Raview department receives special attention, and ondeavours are made to present a careful and concise record of Literature on China etc., and to give critiques embodying aketches of the Most recent works on such topics. Authors and Publishers are requested to forward works to 'Editor, China Review, care of China Mail Office.

The Notes and Queries are still continued and form an important means of obtaining from and diffusing among students knowledge on obscure points.

This number contains several articles of interest and value, - North-China Herald, 'The China Review for September-October fully maintains the high standard of oxcollence which characterises that publiation, and altogether forms a very interesting and readable number. Meteorologists will find an interesting and valuable contribution by Dr. Fritsche, on "the Amount of Precipitation (Ruin and Snow) of Peking," showing the results of observations made at the Imperial Russinn Observatory at Poking, from 1841 to 1880. "Notes on the Dutch Occupation of Formosa," by Mr. Geo. Phillips, contains some interesting information, although much of it is second-hand. The Notices of Now Books include a most generous and appreciative review of "The Divine Classic of Nan-Hua," and the Notes and Queries are as usual very interesting.'-North-China Daily News.

'A substantial and reliable Review which all students of China and the Chinese would do well to patronize. '-Chrysanthemun. 'The November-December number of the China Review contains less variety than usual, but the few articles are very interesting. The opening paper by Mr Herbert A. Giles on "The New Testament in Cldnose" treats of a question that must necessarily be of great importance in the eyes of all missionaries. . . Mr E. H. Parker's "Short Journeys in Szechuen" are continued, and a goodly instalment of these travels in the interior of China is given. Mr F. H. Balfour contributes a paper of some length entitled "The Emperor Cheng, founder of the Chinese Empire," which will be read with genuine interest by students of Chinese history. A fow short notices of New Books and a number of Notes and Queries, one of which "On Chinese Oaths in Western Porneo and Java" might appropriately have been placed under a separate heading, complete the number. -H.K. Daily Press. Trubner's Oriental Record contains the following notice of the Uhina Review:-

The present publication, judging by the number now before us, is intended to occupy a position, as regards China and the neighbouring countries, some what similar to that which has been filled in India by the Calcutta Review, The great degree of attention that has been bestowed of late years upon the investigation of Chinese literature, antiquities, and social developments, to say nothing of linguistic studies, has led to the accumulation of important stores of information, rendering some such channel of publicity as is now provided extremely desirable; and contributions of much interest may fairly be looked or from the members of the foreign consular services, the Chinese Customs' corps, and the missionary body. among whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is now assiduously cultivated, and who are severally represented in the first number of the Review by papers highly creditable to their respective authors . Some translations from Chinese nevels as plays are marked by both accuracy and fres

ness of style; and an account of the career the Chinese poet-statesman of the eleven century, Su Tang-p'o, by Mr. E. C. Bown is not only historically valuable, but is al listinguished by its literary grace. Best notices of new books relating to China a the East, which will be a useful feature the Review, if carried out with punctuali and detail, we are glad to notice th "Notes' and 'Queries' are destined find a place in its pages also. It is to hoped that this opening for contribution on Chinese subjects may evoke a simil degree of literary real to that which w displayed during the lifetime of its producesor in the field, and that the China Revie may receive the support necessary to last
